TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE YHMC. RE SECRETARY VACANCY AT 2017 AGM.

Dear members,

After nearly seventeen years as your club secretary I have decided it is time to retire from that position. Club membership has grown and with it additional demands on my available time. Time has become less as I keep losing days and hours, to what I do not know!! There is also the dwindling 'brain power' which is unable to cope with latest technology, most necessary to keep with the changes that are occurring, and would make the secretary duties easier for a 'tech savvy' person. You all think I am younger than my years tell because I still have most of my hair even if it is grey. Frustrations are creeping in.

I believe now is a good time to look at our membership to encourage some new faces on the committee and as we have over 110 members there must be willing workers to make a small commitment to running the YOUNG HERITAGE MOTOR CLUB in the future.

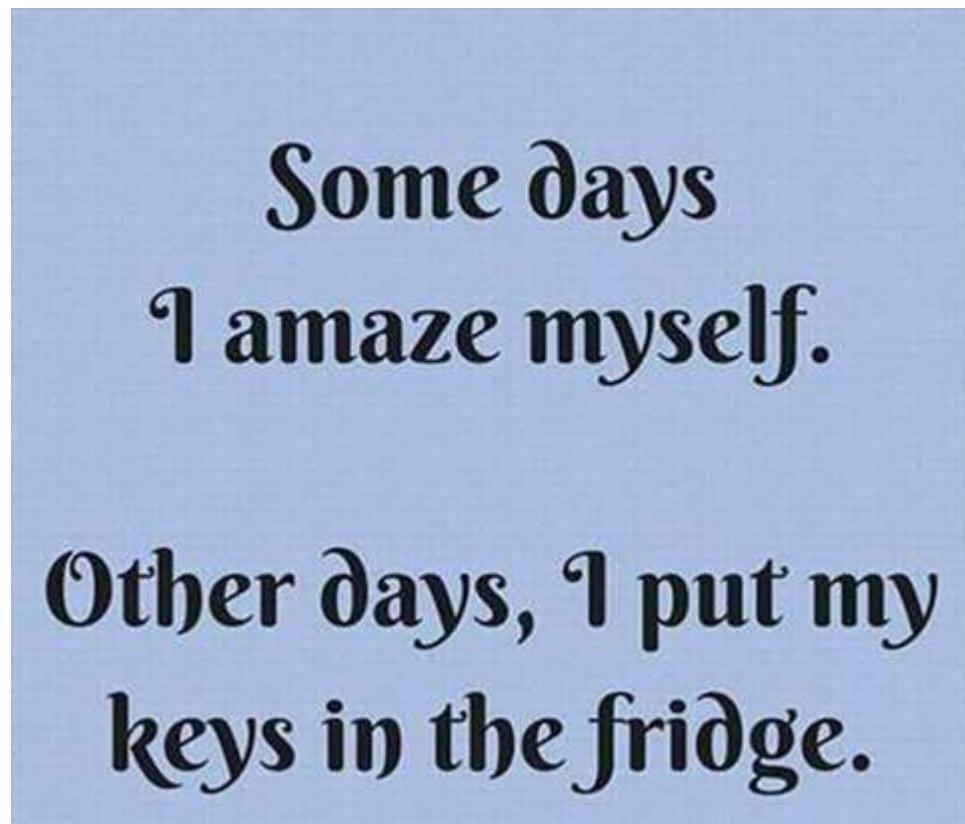

We have a very good club and a big effort has been made to reduce excessive regulation on "H" plate resisted vehicles, as it is your hobby that is protecting our Heritage Motoring.

You own the vehicle, you insure it and pay the registration and you know the rules and the laws of the road - enjoy your hobby.

The AGM of the YOUNG HERITAGE MOTOR CLUB will be held on Wednesday 8th March 2017. Have you got a little extra time for your club? NOMINATE NOW.

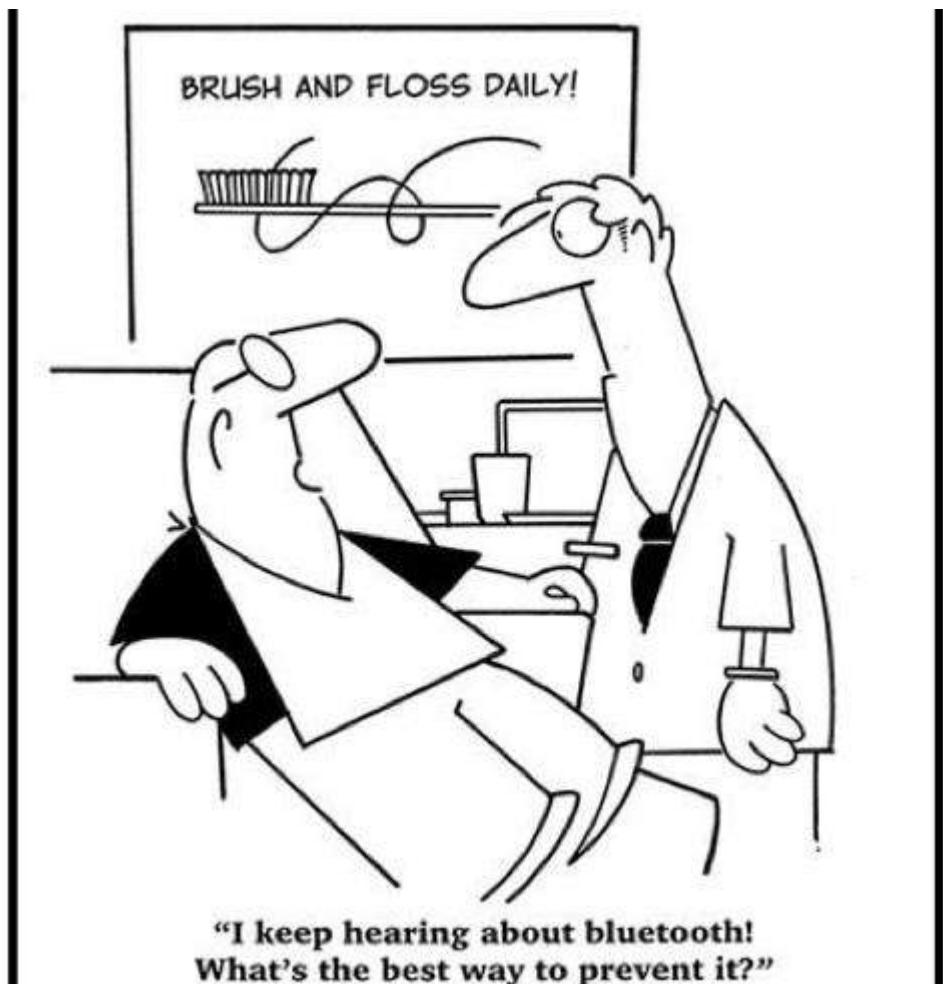

Kind regards,

Peter Kinsela

From the Editors:

Well it does not seem that a lot has happened since last edition but then why have I and Karen been so busy? Seems to me that there is always something to do with family, friends and working around the house. Karen and I had a nice Xmas with a few family over for Xmas day, then a trip to Cowra for a family gathering on the 29th which was very nice except it was very warm. All the same a great time was had by all.

I was thinking the other day that I used to sit down and write Xmas cards to everyone that is family and close friends...and there was a lot of them. This year I did not send any cards but rather I emailed them. I was a bit disappointed in myself for not writing cards and said so in my email to those I would normally send cards to. Well most of them wrote back saying don't worry about feeling bad as they had not sent cards either and they had chosen to send emails instead. Some had actually sent electronic Xmas cards via email, used Facebook or some other electronic method.

Karen and I had not put up any Xmas decorations this year either...basically as it is our off year with the family where our kids go to their in-laws. I don't think it is a case of just cannot be bothered with the whole Xmas thing but technology is making things so much quicker and easier that rather than sit down for a few hours writing cards, you can write one statement and send it to many recipients. I do not know if it is a good thing or not.

Maybe next year I will get the pen out and write some Xmas cards out and put up the decorations. I do think it is nice to send cards as it to receive them, Makes it bit more personal. Anyway I hope all of our members and their families had a great Xmas and have started the New Year healthy and wise...plus like me maybe on a diet!

Angus and Karen.

Joke of the month:

President Trump invited the Pope for lunch on his mega yacht, the Pope accepted and during lunch, a puff of wind blew the Pontiff's hat off, right into the water.

It floated off about 50 feet, then the wind died down and it just floated in place. The crew and the secret service were scrambling to launch a boat to go get it, when Trump waved them off, saying "Never mind, boys, I'll get it."

The Donald climbed over the side of the yacht, walked on the water to the hat, picked it up, walked back on the water, climbed onto the yacht, and handed the Pope his hat.

The crew was speechless. The security team and the Pope's entourage were speechless. No one knew what to say, not even the Pope. But that afternoon, NBC, CBS, ABC, MSNBC, CNN all knew how to cover the story.

Their banner headlines read,

"TRUMP CAN'T SWIM"
